Vendor	Contact Name	Email Address	Explanation of No Bid Submittal
Applewood Builders, LLC	Eric Johnson	applewoodbuild96@gmail.com	"Unfortunately, we didn't recognize that there was a time limit on when we can submit the documents."
ARC Coatings	Chuck Carr	ccarr@arccoat.com	"Scheduling conflict"
Hell N High Water Construction	Kelly Isbell	Kelly@hellnhighwater.com	"I submitted a bid through my other company, Hire Educators, to help plan and execute the annual vendor event. I never received feedback on who was awarded the contract and subsequent inquiries regarding such were never answered. It takes a great deal of time to prepare proposals for small companies and I tend to support those organizations with a good feedback system to learn how I can improve my submissions for potential work. GLWA Procurement response: RFP 2204048 "Annual Vendor Outreach Event" Hire Educators did submit a Proposal; however, this RFP was cancelled via Addendum No. 1 which was sent out to all Proposers. GLWA had no subsequent request for further information or a debriefing until this current project.
Wade Trim	Jason Kenyon	jkenyon@wadetrim.com	"Wade Trim routinely downloads RFPs to evaluate opportunities to pursue. We did not feel this project was a good match for our firm at this time."
Emerson Automation Solutions	Vincent Gallo	Vincent.Gallo@emerson.com	"No Emerson scope in this RFB"
LGC Global	Angie Chappell	Angie.chappell@lgccorp.com	"Owner just decided not to bid this one."
