

CFO Forum: Water Sector Leadership Forum on Rising Cost Pressures & Mitigation Strategies

Evaluation Summary

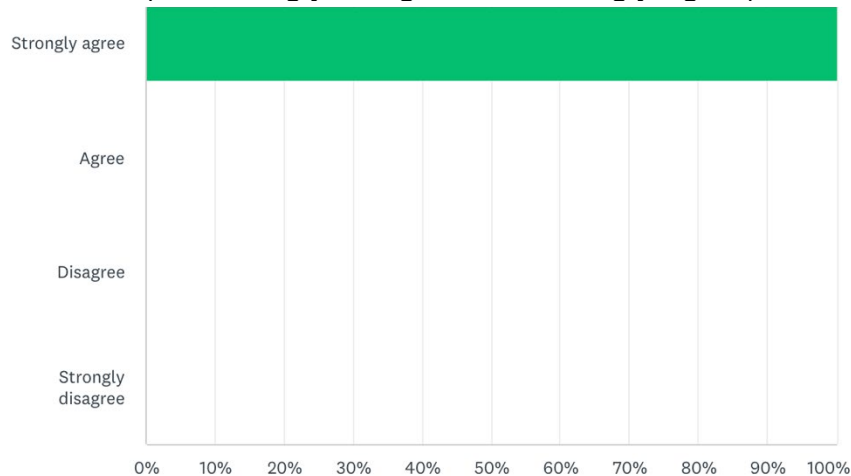

December 7, 2022

Webinar participants = 50

Question 1: Today's CFO Forum was a good use of my time

(1 = Strongly Disagree; 4 = Strongly Agree)

Strongly Agree: 100% 11 respondents

Question 2: Here's what I liked best about the session:

1. Quid pro quo. Exchange of ideas and information.
2. The discussion of assumptions and scenarios.
3. Presentation
4. The presentation and hearing what others are experiencing
5. Extremely relevant and timely information.
6. Good topics; discussion
7. Lots of helpful data that we can share
8. Inflation data and projections were interesting. Overview of markets was valuable.
9. Got to hear a lot of viewpoints speaking of the same struggles we are having here.
10. Great presentations and relevant information facing us all.
11. Great content and perspectives which prompted strong discussion.

Question 3:

Here's what I wish would have been a bit different:

1. I would like to share more through a community email or like instrument.
2. Usual Zoom comments about people with unmuted mic that interrupted the flow of the presentation.
3. Eliminate introductions and use that time for presentation and/or questions
4. National and regional data
5. Just more along the same lines - such an important topic to discuss
6. N/A
7. No great ideas to improve
8. Better news and easier problems

Question 4:

Any further thoughts to share?

1. Do this quarterly as we navigate through what I believe has already been a recession entered into and as we navigate out of that and the pandemic...not to mention final two years of current administration and potential renewal of current or election of new party. All in play.
2. Maybe a continuation/update from the group at the April CFO Forum.
3. More frequent meetings
4. This is the most useful webinar I have been on this year. Kudos to the organizers and the GLWA for initiating the Task Force.
5. Thank you!
6. Thanks for doing the webinar!
7. Email chain to keep contact and monitor issues that we are constantly seeing as it all changes and evolves around us.
8. Thank you for organizing and presenting! It was a great use of my time.
