6. Public Comment

Richard Clay, President, National Federation of the Blind - Detroit Chapter, came before the Board to request full in-person access to the Water Board Building for blind consumers to pay their water bills and resolve cases with a DWSD representative; make kiosk terminals fully accessible to the blind and visually impaired; receive water bills in Braille and/or large print format; and increase number of CCFs permitted to consumers eligible for DWSD's Lifeline Plan from six to seven.

Stephen Handschu, National Federation of the Blind, came before the Board in support of the requests made by Richard Clay, and asked that due consideration is given to those requests.

Sabrina Rice, a resident of the City of Detroit, came before the Board in support of the requests made by Richard Clay, and requested consideration and investigate why someone who's blind and visually impaired cannot participate actively in society as those with sight.

Director Brown responded to the comments and requests made, and asked to have the residents escorted to the DWSD office, where someone will be waiting to document their requests.
