Vendor	Contact Name	Email Address	Explanation of No Bid Submittal
HDR Michigan Inc.	Khaled Soubra, PhD, PE, LEED AP Tamara Bishop	Tamara.Bishop@hdrinc.com	The number of projects issued by GLWA requires a careful evaluation of each opportunity to confirm the best fit and allocation of resources required for submitting a proposal. HDR has decided to focus on other GLWA opportunities and therefore did not submit on this.
Orbital Engineering Inc.	Tyler Neff	Tneff@orbitalengr.com	Since we have not yet done a project of this size and scope for GLWA, and since we are not familiar with your internal processes, we have decided to, respectfully, No-Bid. For our first project with GLWA, we will wait for one of appropriate size in order to maximize the potential for a win-win scenario and to start the client/consultant relationship off right.
Hazen and Sawyer	Jared Stewart	jsterwart@hazenandsawyer.com	Hazen and Sawyer submitted as a subconsultant to FKE
Thompson Pipe Group	Dustin Griesing	DustinGriesing@thompsonpipegroup.com	We are a pipe supplier who will work with the selected engineer / prime contract holder. We would submit a proposal as a prime consultant/team.
Applied Science, Inc.	Lisa R. Lynn	llynn@asi-detroit.com	We were included as a subconsultant on the FK Engineering team that submitted a bid as the Prime Consultant for the project.

NTH Consultants, Ltd	Lisa Dilg	LDilg@nthconsultants.com	NTH Consultants, Ltd. was teamed with Wade Trim who did submit a proposal for this project.
CDM Smith	David Vidikan	vidikandc@cdmsmith.com	Due to the complexity of the project, additional time was required to prepare our proposal. CDM Smith did request a time extension. GLWA did provide a time extension on the project. However, the notification that there would be a time extension was not provided until one day before proposals were originally scheduled to be due.
