The Public Hearings were opened at 2:17 p.m., with an overview of the Proposed FY 2023 and FY 2024 Biennial Budget and the Proposed FY 2023 Water and Sewerage Service Charges by Nicolette Bateson, Chief Financial Officer/Treasurer, followed by a presentation of the FY 2023 through FY 2027 Capital Improvement Plan, by Dima El-Gamal, Capital Improvement Program Director.

Following presentations of the budget, charges and CIP, Nicolette Bateson, CFO/Treasurer, presented Resolution 2022-071, Resolution Adopting the FY 2023 and FY 2024 Biennial Budget and Resolution 2022-072, Resolution Regarding Approval of FY 2023 Schedule of Service Charges; and Jody Caldwell, Interim Chief Planning Officer, presented Resolution 2022-061, Resolution Regarding Approval of FY 2023 through FY 2024 Capital Improvement Plan.

Following presentation of the resolutions regarding the budget, charges, and CIP, Chairperson Quadrozzi asked if there were any members of the public in the Board Room that would like to make comments regarding the budget, charges, and/or CIP.

-A resident of the City of Melvindale came before the Board regarding water and sewerage charges and asked if an explanation of the reason for Melvindale charges could be given to the public, to which Suzanne R. Coffey, Interim Chief Executive Officer, explained.

Chairperson Quadrozzi asked if there were any other members of the public in the room that would like to make comments regarding the budget, charges, and/or CIP.

There being no additional members of the public in the Board Room that would like to make comments, Chairperson Quadrozzi asked if there were any members of the public participating in the public hearings remotely (zoom telephonic) that would like to make comments regarding the budget, charges, and/or CIP.

- Laurel Smith, a Melvindale resident, addressed the Board regarding Melvindale water rates, which she says are non-affordable to the residents that live in Melvindale.

- Demeeko Williams, Chief Director of Hydrate Detroit, a 501(c)3 water rights organization, addressed the Board regarding the proposed budget, charges, and WRAP (Water Residential Assistance Program).

- Kathy S., a Melvindale resident, addressed the Board regarding water rate increase, which she states the residents of Melvindale cannot afford.

- Honorable Joe Jackson, Mayor Pro-Tem, City of Melvindale, addressed the Board regarding the high water bills in the community of Melvindale and asked if there is any way possible to give the residents a break on the proposed charges.

- Salim, a Melvindale resident, addressed the Board regarding the high water bills in Melvindale and asked to please give Melvindale a break and a solution to help the residents of Melvindale get out of this struggle.

Noted from item 5. Public Comments:

Honorable Joe Jackson, Councilman - City of Melvindale, addressed the Board regarding the proposed water rate increase for the City of Melvindale and stated that Melvindale is a low-income city, and cannot sustain the proposed charges and asked if there was any way possible to come to some type of agreement.

Chairperson Quadrozzi asked if there were any other members of the public that would like to make comments regarding the budget, charges, and/or CIP.

There being no additional comments, Chairperson Quadrozzi adjourned the public hearings at 3:08 p.m. to the call of the Chair, or the adoption of the budget, charges, and CIP.
